

DIGITAL PRIVACY POLICY

Your Privacy

Your privacy is important to us. To better protect your privacy, we provide this notice explaining our online information practices and the choices you can make about the way your information is collected and used. To make this notice easy to find, we make it available on our homepage.

Cleveland Eye Clinic's digital properties do not passively collect personal information about you. The information we collect includes the domain name from which you access the internet, the IP address of your computer, the date and time you access our properties and the Internet address of the website from which you linked to our site.

Inquiries emailed to us are stored, including the question and the email address information, so that we can respond. We will not collect any information what will allow us to personally identify you when you visit our website, unless you choose to offer such information. The email function on our digital properties is not a secure communication link. Your email may be seen by other Internet users while in transit to us, so do not email us if you wish to keep your message confidential.

We do not share your email address with any other parties.
